

WHITTLE CONSULTING

INTEGRATED STRATEGIC PLANNING FOR THE MINING INDUSTRY

PRESS RELEASE

MIKE MUTCHLER JOINS WHITTLE CONSULTING

15th November 2016

Mike Mutchler joins Whittle Consulting as Partner and Advisory Board Member, based in Toronto.

Mike, previously COO of Largo Resources, COO of Rainy River, and VP Project Development of Kinross Gold, has now joined the Whittle Consulting team based in Toronto, Canada.

Mike says "As a three times client, I have observed first-hand the value that Whittle Consulting's approach to Integrated Strategic Planning can bring to a mining project or operation, so I jumped at the chance to get involved. I can't think of any higher priority for the mining industry than to make these cross - functional collaborative techniques common practice."

Mike brings considerable management and technical expertise to Whittle Consulting. He will be interacting with Canadian based miners, investors and regulators to help them access the education, services, software and implementation support that Whittle Consulting and their key alliance partners can provide.
